

HOME STRETCH

FOR THE BUILDING CREATED BY
AND FOR THE PEOPLE OF HAWAII

 PBS Hawaii
NEW HOME Campaign

We're almost there!

Construction of PBS Hawaii's NEW HOME, The Clarence T.C. Ching Campus, will be completed this summer. If you have a chance, take a look at how the building is progressing at the corner of Nimitz Highway and Sand Island Access Road in Honolulu.

Across the state, well over a thousand individuals and organizations that care about education—through quality storytelling—have brought this project nearly to the finish line!

On screen, PBS Hawaii is known for bringing people and ideas together...for bringing the world to Hawaii and Hawaii to the world.

But despite the miracles of broadcasting and the Web, there remains a vital need for people to get together in person.

- This beautiful building, with open collaborative spaces, will enable us to convene storytellers. It'll be a trusted place for independent filmmakers and others to share different and sometimes difficult perspectives about our island home. Many new stories will unfold.
- We'll provide workshop space for teachers and students from all islands, including those in our 90-school HIKI NŌ statewide student news network.
- The layout will make possible more offerings of LIVE television with studio audiences, featuring music performances as well as timely conversations on important issues.

Help us cross the finish line to complete this building, created by and for the people of Hawaii!

Any size of gift is welcome and appreciated. For a minimum of $500 or $1,000, your name can be part of this iconic building for future generations.

If you have already made a tax-deductible gift, THANK YOU!

If you have not yet done so, we ask you to join fellow Hawaii residents and contribute now. A coupon follows for your convenience.

"I love the unique programs on PBS Hawaii! A NEW HOME will help PBS Hawaii to keep sharing these stories with everyone—on all islands and across the globe."
